

BEYOND HUMANITIES AND SOCIAL SCIENCES PERSPECTIVES ON THE ECOLOGICAL CRISIS SUSTAINABILITY

Lecture series, winter term 2025/26

European University Viadrina, Frankfurt (Oder)

Mondays, 4.15-5.45 pm, room AM 233 & zoom (QR-code below)

Conveners: Amelie Kutter and Estela Schindel

- October 27 (online) Jason W. Moore (Binghamton) On the 'Sustainability of the Rich': How the One Percent uses Nature to Make You Afraid, Keep its Wealth, and Hold on to Power
- November 3 Stefan Janković (Belgrade) Digging into Ecopolitical Dispute: Mapping Controversies around Lithium Extraction in Serbia
- November 10 Anna Henkel (Passau) Dilemmas of Sustainability
- November 17 Gal Kirn (EUV) Liberation Ecology: A Blueprint for Future Research
- November 24 (online) Miriam Lang (Quito) Fostering Desirable Ecosocial Futures in Times of Darkness
- December 1 Jan-Erik Schirmer (EUV) Climate Liability: The David v. Goliath Dynamic in the Courtroom
- December 8 Pierre Wat (Paris) Paradise Lost? Art facing the Anthropocene
- December 15 Leon Wansleben (Max-Planck-Institut) Decarbonization at your Doorstep: How Infrastructures, Politics, and Climate Activists Shape Household Energy Transitions
- January 5 Estela Schindel (EUV) Beyond the (Hu)man: Challenges and Debates around the Anthropocene
- January 12 André Rottmann (EUV) Images, Infrastructures and Intelligences: Ecologies of Contemporary Art between Nature and Technology
- January 19 Andreas Bähr (EUV) Times of Crisis: Concepts of the Past, Present and Future in Early Modern Human-Environment Relations
- January 26 Amelie Kutter (EUV) The Governmentality of Sustainability Transition. The Case of Peatlands

More information:
www.europa-uni.de/ifes

