The Naomi Prawer Kadar International Yiddish Summer Program is proud to announce its faculty for the summer of 2020 (June 28 to July 23). These outstanding educators from Israel, North America and Europe ensure the high quality of our language instruction and academic enrichment program.

The Yiddish language teaching staff will be:
- Mr. Daniel Birnbaum
- Prof. Yitskhok Niborski
- Prof. Avraham Novershtern
- Dr. Alexandra Polyan
- Ms. Esther Rollansky
- Prof. David Roskies
- Ms. Vera Szabo

As students of TAU International, participants will be eligible for 80 hours of language and literature instruction (four credits).

The costs of the program are:
- $1450 tuition
- $60 registration fee

Scholarships are available for full time students.

Cultural Program:
- Afternoon lecture series on Yiddish literature and culture with Prof. Justin Cammy
- Lectures (in Yiddish and English) with leading scholars
- Yiddish conversation classes
- Yiddish song workshop
- Yiddish immersion evenings in Tel Aviv
- Tours to local sites and institutions
- Graduate research forum
- And more!

Academic Program Directors:
- Prof. Hana Wirth-Nesher, Tel Aviv University
- Prof. Avraham Novershtern, The Hebrew University of Jerusalem
- Beth Shalom Aleichem

Summer Director:
- Prof. Justin Cammy, Smith College

Online registration: www.international.tau.ac.il
Closing date for applications: May 1, 2019.
For additional information, please contact:
The Naomi Prawer Kadar International Yiddish Summer Program
Tel: +972-3-6407805 ● Fax: +972-3-6407732
naomiyiddish@tauex.tau.ac.il ● www.naomiyiddish.tau.ac.il