

Language and belonging: the German minority in Poland

Organisatorinnen: Prof. Dr. Nicole Richter und Sara Bonin, M.A.

20.02.2019 Begrüßung/Eröffnung: 13:30 Uhr

14:00 –14:45

Prof. Dr. Piotr Madajczyk: German Minority in Opole/Oppeln Silesia in the PL Historiography

14:45 –15:30

Dr. Magdalena Lemańczyk: Triangulation in Qualitative Sociological Research: Case Study of Leaders of the German Minority in Northern Poland

16:00 –16:45

Prof. Dr. Tomasz Wicherkiewicz: Linguistic Concept of Belonging -in Center(s) and Peripheries

16:45 –17:30

Dr. Concha Höfler: Negotiating multiple belongings in conversation: Insights from the post-Soviet Greek and German diasporas

21.02.2019

9:00 –9:45

Prof. Dr. Sławomir Łodziński: The German language as a national minority language in a local public space

9:45–10:30

Dr. Katharina Schuchardt: Memories (Un)told –Narrating the history of the German Minority in Opole. Perspectives from the European Ethnology

13:30 –14:15

Prof. Dr. Felicja Księżyk: Generationsbedingte Differenzierung der Sprache: morpho-syntaktische Veränderungen durch deutsch-polnischen Sprachkontakt in der Sprache zweisprachiger Personen

14:15 –15:00

Dr. Anna Meijknecht, ass. prof.: The gap between legal standards and reality: the case of the German minority in Poland

21.02. Methodology discussion and data analysis (11:00-12:30 & 15:30-16:45)

Ende um 17:30 Uhr am 21.02.19