

1. What kinds of projects has the Bank undertaken?
  2. Which countries have received a large percentage of IBRD loans in recent years?
  3. What are MICs? And what problems are associated with loaning to them (as opposed to private capital markets) and also not loaning to them?
  4. What is subsidiarity? Is this a principle of the Bank/IMF? Why would it be good?
  5. What two partner institutions (in addition to IBRD) are discussed? What do they do?
  6. The Bank cannot control everything but is run by and depends on its member states? What kinds of member-state responsibilities or actions are discussed?
  7. What are some global public goods? What is and should be the Bank's role concerning these goods?
  8. What is China's role in the Bank, how is it important?
  9. What is discussed in terms of the Bank's credibility?
-

- a. How is political power a state's trump card as an economic actor – explain.
- b. Whose interests are the IMF and World Bank serving?
- c. What are the moral hazards of IMF rescue packages?
- d. What is conditionality? Is it appropriate?
- e. What accountability and sovereignty problems are posed by the IMF and World Bank? Are these problems?
- f. Explain how the Bretton Woods system works using a realist/neoliberal institutionalist approach.
- g. Explain how the Bretton Woods system works using a liberal and constructivist approach.

Groups

Political science majors:

1- 9 & f

2- 7 & g

1 & a

2 & b

3 & c

4 & d

5 & e

6 & e

8