

Theories and Strategies of European Integration

3/6/9 ECTS

Seminar: MA, MASS: Zentralmodul: Kultur und Gesellschaft//MES
Tuesday, 9.15 – 10.45 am, Place: GD 202, Start: 12.10.2010

If you are presenting a paper, please send an outline or 5-6 core arguments (max. one page) one week prior to your presentation to: politik2@euv-frankfurt-o.de

Seminar outline and required reading

12.10.10 Presentation of seminar structure, seminar organisation, requirements

Introduction: The early days of European integration in history and theory

19.10.10 Integration and the concept of “theory“ in the social sciences

Rosamond pp. 1-19
Diez/Wiener

26.10.10 The founding years of the European Community (1957-1965/66)

McAllister pp. 11-60

02.11.10 Federalism and Neo-Federalism

Burgess

09.11.10 Functionalism and Neofunctionalism

Haas

16.11.10 The criticism of Stanley Hoffmann: Intergovernmentalism

Hoffmann

23.11.10 The further development of Neofunctionalism until the early 1970s

Schmitter

Adolescence and re-launch of European politics and theory

30.11.10 Crisis and stagnation?: The mid-1970s to the early 1980s

McAllister pp. 96-161

07.12.10 Relaunching the European Community: Single Market and Single European Act

McAllister pp. 162-183

14.12.10 The re-discovery of Neofunctionalism in the 1990s

Tranholm-Mikkelsen

- 04.01.11 Reaction and critique: Liberal Intergovernmentalism
Moravcsik
- 11.01.11 Historical Institutionalism
Pierson

Governing and theorizing the 'New Europe'

- 18.01.11 Europe's transformation in the 1990s
McAllister pp. 208-236
- 25.01.11 ,Governance' in the European Union and in EU studies
Jachtenfuchs/Kohler-Koch
- 01.02.11 Europeanization: A new focus?
Börzel/Risse