

Kujawa, Karol

The New Turkish Foreign Policy: Implications for the MENA Region and the Transatlantic Community

ECTS: 6/9

ZB Po, WPM 1, WPM 5

Blockseminar

Einführung: 19.10.2012, 14.00-16.00 Uhr, Ort: AM 02; 1.Block: 9.11.2012, 14.00-19.00 Uhr, 10.11.2012, 10.00-15.00 Uhr, Ort: Stephanssaal; 2.Block: 30.11.2012, 14.00-19.00 Uhr, 01.12.2012, 10.00-15.00 Uhr, Ort: HG 162; 3. Block: 11.01.2013, 14.00-19.00 Uhr, 12.01.2013, 10.00-15.00 Uhr; Ort: AM 205

Block Content:

Turkey's foreign policy on the threshold of the 21st century

Turkish geopolitics - Continuity or Change?

Turkey as a rising power and its role in the MENA region

Transition experience in Poland and Turkey - possible implications for the MENA region?

Turkey's energy policy towards the Eastern Mediterranean

Developing trilateral cooperation (PL/DE/TK) with the MENA region

Literatur: K. Kujawa „The Potential for the Intensification of the Turkish-Cypriot Dispute: Consequences for the European Union“ 2012, K. Kujawa “The Main Causes of the Crisis in Relations between Turkey and the European Union, „Yearbook of the Institute of East-Central Europe”, Lublin 2011., K. Kujawa “Problems in Turkey's path to EU membership or withdrawal from the EU's aspirations, „International Affairs”, ed. H. Szlajfer Warsaw 2012., http://www.pism.pl/publikacje/czasopisma/Sprawy_Miedzynarodowe/2011/4,

J. Lowitzsch, “The Property Question in the North African Transition Countries” Conceptual frame for future trilateral cooperation (PL/DE/TK) towards the MENA region

Leistungsnachweis: Teilnehmer halten einen 5-minütigen Kurzvortrag zu Beginn der jeweiligen Sitzung und verfassen eine Seminararbeit von 10-12 Seiten (6 ECTS-Punkte) oder 20-25 Seiten (9 ECTS-Punkte).

Sprache: Englisch